Official Statement on The Peninsula Manila

November 29, 2007, 3:15 pm, Hong Kong Time

The Peninsula Manila has been occupied by a group of gunmen. There are no reports of any injuries to hotel guests, patrons or staff, and the matter is being dealt with by the relevant Philippine authorities.

The Peninsula Manila takes the safety of its guests, patrons and staff extremely seriously, considering it to be of paramount importance. As such, The Peninsula Manila is currently being evacuated and hotel guests are being transferred to neighbouring hotels. The Hotel will continue to liaise and work closely with the Philippine authorities.

The Peninsula Manila is now closed until further notice. For media enquiries, please contact Ms Irene Lau, Corporate Affairs Manager of The Hongkong and Shanghai Hotels, Limited on (852) 9094 3153 or Ms Sian Griffiths, Director of Communications, The Peninsula Hotels on (852) 9026 5217. For general enquiries, a hotline has been set up in Manila: (632) 759 3010 or (632) 759 3011.
